Structured Networking Sessions:

These informal sessions are an opportunity for groups and organisations to register a theme or issue of local, national or international interest that can be discussed as a round table meeting. The person registering the subject will be responsible for facilitating the direction of discussion. e.g. A meeting of a statewide organisation, national groups of similar interest discussing an issue of concern, delegates from different State Government Departments reporting on new trends and policies etc.

Please email a short synopsis of up to 50 words on your proposed topic to mail@ictcsociety.org by 29th October, 2004. Selection of topics will be at the discretion of the organising committee.

Sponsorship & Exhibition:

Many and varied sponsorship opportunities are available and full information regarding these packages and exhibition opportunities can be located on the web at www.ictcsociety.org. To discuss these opportunities, please contact Renee Henshaw, Conference Manager on 07 3371 0333.

The exhibition will include leading application and product providers and will be held concurrently with the conference.

The exhibition aims to provide an extension of the conference learning experience.

Conference Program:

- The program will include renowned International and National Keynote Speakers as well as plenary and concurrent sessions, workshops and case studies
- A trade exhibition highlighting the latest products from leading suppliers
- Rolling Workshops and Structured Networking Sessions

Pre-Conference Specialist Workshops:

- Selected specialist presenters will provide a series of two hour to full day pre-conference workshops. These will be offered as an optional extra to the conference and will be held on Tuesday 31st May, 2005.

Invitation to Host the next ICTC Conference:

Why host the next ICTC Conference?

- Think of the medium term benefits of being able to showcase your community and its recent developments and innovations to the international community, as a whole.
- Think of the short term economic benefits to your community of providing accommodation, food and beverage, hire cars, travel and tourist services to several hundred delegates for 3-4 days

Please indicate on the attached form, if you would like your city to be considered as a possible host for the next ICTC conference. Further information and an application form will be mailed to you.
